FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CyberMetrics Sets All-Time Company Sales Record – FY, 2006

SCOTTSDALE, Arizona-February 14, 2007

CyberMetrics Corporation, a privately-held software and solutions provider founded in 1988 and located in Scottsdale, Arizona, achieved an all-time company sales record during FY, '06.

Sales of CyberMetrics' software, training, and services rose 14.1% over the fourth quarter of the previous year, providing CyberMetrics with its third straight quarter of year-over-year multi-digit sales growth. CyberMetrics' Q3, '06 sales rose a whopping 20.8% over prior year sales, while sales during Q2, '06 rose 17.7% over the same period a year ago. The second quarter of 2006 also marked the best sales quarter in company history.

"CyberMetrics is experiencing tremendous sales growth and the company is well-positioned for achieving future sales results greater than those already achieved", states Larry Bagan, CyberMetrics' Chief Operating Officer.

"CyberMetrics will continue to grow organically through new releases of current products, new products developed in-house, as well as through acquisitions. We are aggressively in pursuit of acquiring additional customer base within our core markets and are committed to overall expansion" notes Bagan.

GAGEtrak (Calibration Management Software) sales grew 25% during FY '06, adding to GAGEtrak's position as the number #1 installed calibration management software solution in the world.

"It is a tremendous and exciting time for CyberMetrics, its employees and especially for our customers", adds Bagan.
